Dear Daniel:

I am sorry. It is best not to publish with my name. It could hurt us both. Please be sure my name is removed. I have already written to Nature some two weeks ago to do so, but I want to be doubly sure.

If and when OPRR takes off the restrictions on you then we should be O.K. to publish together again.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

Robert C. Gallo, M.D.
Chief, Laboratory of Tumor
Cell Biology

P.S. Perhaps an acknowledgement to my contribution of ideas, discussions and some assistance in writing would be appropriate.
